FOR A DECISIVE STRUGGLE.

Tavenner Stock Takes a Jump for the Good, While Flournoy Comes in as Compromise Candidate - Big Wigwam Completed-Splendid Accommodations.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 8 .-Large numbers of prominent Democrats already arrived, and by te-morrow night there will be scarcely a va cant room in any of the hotels, regardless of the fact that the city claims to have the most extensive hotel accommoditions in the state.

So great is the demand for that the board of trade, through whose forts the Democrats were induced to hold their state convention here, are pursing the citizens to throw open their outh a hearty response.

It is now evident that the convention will be the largest thus far, held in making it a success and Parkersburg popular as a convention city, the residents, regardless of politics, are aiding the various committees in every was Wigwam Fully Completed.

The wigwam was completed on Fri-day, and will be decorated to-morrow. It is said to be the largest structure of the kind ever built in West Virginia and is thoroughly fitted with every convenience necessary for the comfort and accommodation of the delegates. It is lighted by electricity, is supplied with very comfortable seats, has a spacious platform, a telegraph room with wires looped in every direction, a telephone exchange, where either local or long distance service can be obtained, fine press accommodations, an abundant supply of water and everything else that can be devised to properly fit it for the occasion. It is located within short distance of the hotels and electric cars, running to all parts of the city, pass the door every seven minutes.

Tavenner Stock in the Ascendancy. In respect to the candidates, Tavenner stock, which was on the decline be cause of the judge's seeming apathy, has been on the bound ever since he as smoked out by a story that he was about to withdraw in favor of Holt and it now looks as though the combina-tion to nominate Holt would fail, even though "he is backed by every railroad claimed, when he re-entered the race. With the exception that Tavenner's chances have somewhat improved the situation is but little changed from last week, the contest for the guberna torial nomination throwing all the others in the shade. The fact that, during his recent interview, Camden did not declare himself for Holt, has acted as a damper upon the ardor, of that gentleman's admirers, who seemed to look for both moral and support of Camden. Though the nomiof the convention will, without doubt, be furnished with moral aid and financial comfort by the aged statesman, no candidate for the nomiation can count upon his ante-conven tion assistance.

Camden Still a Power

Events of the week have effectually disproved the cry that Camden had lost caste with his party and that his pow-er as a leader is a thing of the past, for it is now admitted that, by the mere utterance of a word, he can name the man whom the convention will select to fight for the governorship. Neither McGraw, the Chiltons, nor any of the younger leaders will have a chance to more than follow, should Camden thoose to assume the leadership, and many persons believe that he did this when he allowed himself to be interlewed and, though he said nothing, allowed so much to be inferred. If any ent of fact, except that the con vention is to meet, can be made, it that Chilton has been selected by Holt to manage his campaign, should he receive the nomination, for which it is said, if successful, he will be rewarded with the position of secretary of state, and that ex-Secretary of State Ohle has been chosen by Tavenner to act # a similar capacity, should he be nomi nated, with the same reward if the ticket carries through. Hard Candidate to Handle.

Tavenner seems to be about the hard. est candidate to handle that the politicians have ever encountered. For a draw, more recently he will neither trade nor be traded, nor will he allow any one to dictate his plans or attempt to change his methods. He has strange notions, one of which is that, unless he is nominated it is nobody's business what his history is or how he looks, but, if he receives the nomination, he considers these things are everybody's business, and it is said will scatter his "mug" and sketch broadcast. At the start he seemed a mere novice in politics, for which reason there was a fair possibility that he would be sidetracked by the shrewd politicians who have scheming their business, but this is all changed and the possibility of his I ing nominated on the first ballot is much stronger than it was, even before Holt made his re-entry into the fight, It is not denied that Holt is the candidate of the bosses and as such he may carry off the plum, but it is not con sidered probable that such will be the Flournoy stock is somewhat improv ed and seems on the rise. Should the contest between Tavenner and Holt retolve itself into a deadlock, it looks as though Flourney would have a fair chance to secure the nomination, though there are those who claim that event of a deadlock a dark horse will be the only solution of the problem.

The number of delegates to the convention, it is estimated, will be 943. and under the majority rule, it will take 472 votes to name a candidate, but should the two-thirds rule be adopted the lucky man will be obliged to have 629 votes. There was manifest hesitation in the trend of prices of stocks to-day, and a doubt was disclosed whether the upward movement was not to prove aboutive. American securities got practically no support in the London market, where duliness reigned in anticipation of the Whitsunide holidays. The only stock in demand for London account was Baitimore & Ohio, which touched $3$ in the New York market, an extreme advance of 2% per cent on rumors of an early dividend on the stock. Efforts were made to put up Southern Pacific on the express satisfaction of the president of the company with the prospects of the company. There was also one or two milior railroad stocks which moved upward. These sustaining induences however, falled to hold the market, and company. There was also discovered and the bulls sought to take profits, with resulting influences, however, failed to hold the market, and the bulls sought to take profits, with resulting losses in prices, which reached to between 1 and 2 points in some stocks. The iron and steel industrials were conspicuous sufferers on the depressing opinions regarding the trade outlook by the mercantile agencies and on the shutting down of additional mills of the steel and wire company, which were reported. Sugar hung below last night's level and was comparatively dull. The bank statement proved disappointing in some items and mystifying in others and turned sentiment towards reaction, the closing being heavy and unsettled on a declining scale. The grain in cash showed yesterday's preliminary estimates much at fault. They calculated upon a gain in cash by, the banks of less than $2,000,000, indicating a falling off in the return flow of currency from the interior compared with last week of a million dollars. The bulls accepted this calculation as an encouraging factor yesterday, as indicating an increased use for money and greater trade activity. But the actual bank statement shows a gain in reserves of $4,147,000, indicating the receip from the interior of a million more dollars than last week. There have been no known operations during the week to account for a loan, but the day's large bank clearings indicate a special transaction. The higher rates for money ruling in Berlin make it probable that further American capital is being placed at interest there. The additional reserve requirement resulting from the loan and

There was no news of great importance.

The spark of life in the wheat market was very feeble. Speculators have a habit of doing very little on Saturday and to-day with Liverpool closed they were still less inclined to bestir themsolves. The market opened firm because it was reported anew that the northwest needed more rain but shortly afterward reacted on the prediction of more rains and the general stagnation, and the relative weakness of northwest markets. July opened unchanged at 67665%; soid to 67%, and then declined to 60%; closing heavy at 46 under yesterday at 66%,66%. Primary receipts were 523,900 bushels, compared with 836,000 bushels last year. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 596 cars, against 603 last week and 642 a year ago. Local receipts were 59 cars, one of contract grade. Clearances at the scaboard were equal in wheat and flour to 423,000 bushels. New York reported 52 loads taken for export.
